MOTHERHOOD

Let go or die. That's the alternative of the shipwrecked man with the money bags. A great many people have a like alternative before them. Business men come to a point where the doctor tella them that they must "let go or die." Probably he advised a sea voyage or mountain air. There's an obstinate cough that won't be shaken off. The lungs are weak and perhaps bleeding. There is emaciation and other symptoms of disease, which if unskilfully or improperly treated terminate in consumption.

Thousands of men and women in a like condition have found complete healing by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

ondition have found complete healing by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

"It gives me pleasure to send you this testimonial so that some other poor sufferer may be saved as I was, by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery." writes Geo. A. Thompson, of Sheldon Ava., Chatham, Ont., Canada. "I had a cough for years, expectorated a great deal, and was slowly failing. Was losing flesh every day. Lost in weight from 150 pounds down to 128. My flesh got soft and I had no strength. Did not say anything to any one but made up my mind that the end was not far off. One day my wife was reading in the 'Common Sense Medical Adviser' about Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and I said, that sounds more like common sense than anything else that I had heard. I at once bought a bottle of your famous remedy and before I had taken half of one bottle I felt better. Took thirteen bottles and it made a new man of me. I gained sixteen pounds and never have had a cough since. I feel splendid and give all the credit to your medicine."

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average haldheaded man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he negacts himself. A germ causes haldness. for the welfare of others, that he neg-lects himself. A germ causes baldness. Frof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, in-nocculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

THE LAWLER-FRENCH SUIT.

The following is the text of the opinion handed down recently by Judge John A. Buchanan of the Court of Appeals in the case of Lawler et als. vs. French, &c., from the Corporation Court of this

The object of this suit was to enjoin the appellant, Lawler, from prosecuting an action of unlawful detainer to recover the possession of a house and lot purchased by him from the trustees in a deed of trust, executed to secure the payment of money loaned or advanced by a building and loan association to Robert W. French, one of its members, together with the dues and premiums on the borrower's stock, fines for the nonpayment of such dues and premiums, and all taxes and assessments on the trust property during the continuance of the advancement; to set aside the sale and conveyance made by the trustees; and to have an accounting between the association and the borrowing member. The court upon the hearing of the cause granted the relief prayed for, and from that decree this appeal was allowed.

ing the sale and conveyance made by the trustees set are, (1) That at the time of the sale the complainant was not three months in arrears in the payment of dues, fines, interest or instalments payable to the association; (2) That the sale was ordered without notice to him or demand upon him for the payment of any dues, fines or interest and was in fraud of his rights and contrary to the covenants and terms of the deed of trust; (3) That there were only four persons present at the sale besides the inmates of his house; (4) That his sister-in-law was present at the sale and instructed and directed a friend who was near her to make a bid in excess of the price at which the property was knocked off, which she thought had been communicated to the auctioneer, but by some mistake or misunderstanding was not cried; (5) That the price at which the house and lot were sold was grossly inadequate, and a fraud upon the complainant's rights, as the property was worth more than double the amount for which it was sold; (6) That the com-plainant believes and charges that there was fraud and collusion between the purchaser and the trustees, both conniving at the sale at small figures, and although the complainant protested against the sale and offered to reimburse the purchaser, be declined to accept the money he paid for the property and that the whole transaction so far as the purchaser and the trustees were concerned was concluded in less than two days after the sale.

The trustees and purchaser demurred to and answered the bill. In their answers they deny all the material allegaaside the sale and conveyance except cordance with the plain provisions of the the statement in the bill that the com- assignment, which was written by an atplainant was not three months in arrears on his monthly dues, fines, interest or instalments. While the answers of terms of the assignment, paid the money Without the trustees admit that the complainant to the assignee he received it without any was not three months in arrears on account of his dues, etc., they aver that to receive the money but was a mere he had not paid the taxes upon the security for the debt; and Mr. French, property for several years, and that Its gentle, quieting influence, on an aching, throbbing head, tooth, or other nerve, you will never be without it in the house.

The trustees further state in and made-sale of the property before there said French had ratified the sale by giving an order upon them for the bal-ance of the proceeds of sale after satis-by-laws of the association of which the fying the debt secured by the trust deed, and that they paid over the same to the assignee and had settled their accounts before the commissioner of accounts. The complainant failed to prove the material allegations of his bill. There is not the slightest evidence of fraud or collusion the slightest evidence of fraud or collusion on the part of the trustees and the purachaser. It was sold to the purchaser, Lawler, as the highest and best bidder. There was nothing in the condition of the weather residential property in that part of the city does not sell for anything like its original cost. It is by no means clear that the property, if offered for sale again would sell for much, if any, more than the price at which it did sell, at least there is no such inadequacy of the contention that the association had price shown as would justify the court in setting aside the sale on that ground.

The clear preponderance of evidence is, that the sister-in-law of the appellee, French, who was present at the sale, did the sale to be set to be did not bid or authorize any one else to
